

Prime Climb Overnight Programs

Overview

- Overnight Programs are offered on weekends (Fri, Sat) and must be scheduled in advance.
- All participants must have a signed Prime Climb assumption of risk document (available at www.primeclimb.com)
- Groups arrive at gym between 7 - 8 pm
- Ages are at the groups discretion. We provide access to Prime Climb and Mountain Fun facilities so that kids from of any age can climb.
- Price includes equipment rental (harnesses, shoes, etc.)
- One Prime Climb staff member who spends the night and is responsible for challenge course setup, facility management, safety checks and belaying
- Includes regular use of climbing facility for night.
- Access to cargo net, challenge course elements, and other climbing games that can be done after hours including options like headlamp and blindfold climbing, milk crate stacking, and slacklining
- 1 hour basic safety and belay training/refresher for up to 6 adult chaperone's and/or older kids (13 or older). This allows the group to climb without requiring additional Prime Climb staff to manage ropes.
- Groups leave around 8:00 the next morning

Group or individuals provide

- For youth groups, your organization must provide an appropriate number of adult chaperones/ belayers to spend the night
- Sleeping bags, pillows etc.
- Food and snacks (pizza can be ordered and delivered up until 11:00 PM)
- Games (cards, etc.)
- Movies (need laptop and projector)
- Other items relevant to group
- Headlamps (optional)

Pricing

- Base price is $38 for campers. Minimum 10 campers.
- No charge for adult chaperones

Options

- Additional PC staff to manage belaying ($14 hour per staff member). Usually only required up until 11:00 or 12:00 and only if adults/chaperones cannot belay.
- Complete knot and belay training class held separately for group belayers prior to the overnight program. $25 per person
- Scout troops may wish to consider utilizing the time to work on climbing merit badge requirements. Contact Prime climb for more details and pricing
- PC provided laptop and projector $25